

Enstar Group Limited Board Member to Resign in April to Pursue Full-time Role

February 26, 2020

HAMILTON, Bermuda, Feb. 26, 2020 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Enstar Group Limited ("Enstar") (Nasdaq: ESGR) today announced that Sandra Boss will step down from its Board of Directors in order to pursue a full-time executive role with another company.

Ms. Boss has been a director of the Company since November 2015. She serves as Chair of the Risk Committee and is a member of the Compensation Committee and the Nominating and Governance Committee. Her resignation will be effective on April 1, 2020, which will allow for the smooth transition of the Risk Committee chairmanship to Hitesh Patel, an independent director who has served since 2015.

Dominic Silvester, Enstar's Chief Executive Officer, said, "Sandy has made so many valuable contributions to Enstar in her four years as a director, most notably as our first Risk Committee Chair. We thank her for her service to Enstar. She will be greatly missed."

Bob Campbell, Enstar's Chairman, said, "Sandy was the driving force behind the formation of the Risk Committee, which has greatly enhanced our Board's oversight of risk. On behalf of the Board, we wish her every success in the future."

Ms. Boss, commenting on her announced departure, said, "I have greatly enjoyed working with Enstar as a director and Risk Committee chair during this exciting phase in its growth. While I will no longer have capacity to serve as a director, I look forward to staying in touch with the Enstar team."
