On April 25, 2012, Enstar Group Limited (the “Company”) entered into letter agreements with Paul J. O’Shea and Nicholas A. Packer amending their existing employment agreements with the Company. The letter agreements extend the existing employment agreements with Messrs. O’Shea and Packer for a five-year term commencing as of January 1, 2012. The current term of their employment agreements would have expired on April 30, 2012, although they were scheduled to renew for an additional one-year period.

Messrs. O’Shea and Packer will continue to serve as the Company’s Executive Vice Presidents and Joint Chief Operating Officers. Each letter agreement provides that if the officer fails to remain employed through the new five-year term (except in the event the officer’s employment is terminated by the Company without cause or by the officer with good reason), the noncompetition covenant in the respective officer’s employment agreement will apply for an eighteen-month period following the date employment ceases.
